Jesus come to us
Jesus preach to us
Alleluia, alleluia.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Glory to you, O Lord.

Then, he taught the people there, "Today, this Scripture reading came true as you heard it!"

At first, everyone was happy with Jesus. They were really amazed at what he said! So, they began asking, "Isn't this just Joseph's son?"

So Jesus spoke up, "You really want to tell me, 'Doctor, heal now! We heard what happened in Capernaum. Do the same things here!' Listen! No preacher is accepted in his hometown. Listen again! In the time of Elijah, there were many widows in Israel when it stopped raining for three and one half years. And there was a great famine everywhere. God didn't sent Elijah to any of them except to the widow Serepta from foreign town of Sidon. In the time of Elisha the prophet, there were many lepers in Israel. None of them were cured except Nanaam, the foreigner from Syria."

When they heard his words, everyone in the synagogue got really angry. They stood up and threw Jesus outside Nazareth. Then, they led him up to the edge of hill on which the city was built. They were going to throw down to the bottom of the hill. But, Jesus walked away right through them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Hail Mary.
